

Latest journal out now!

The UK healthcare landscape is changing fast, bringing challenges for patients and innovation alike.

Despite financial pressures, research into psoriatic disease continues to uncover important insights, like new links between diet, psoriatic arthritis, and endometriosis.

This issue of Skin 'n' Bones Connection (#61) also highlights concerns over NHS England's recent changes and the rise in health scams targeting vulnerable people. Staying informed and vigilant has never been more important.

Don't miss out, order a hard copy or download your free copy today from our shop.

Stay connected, stay empowered, and join us in supporting better care and research for all.